To Whom It May Concern:

I am pleased to offer this letter of recommendation for Britco Structures.

As a preferred supplier to PTI Group Inc, Britco has delivered on every commitment to us; both on time and on budget.

The company, and in particular Britco's design-build team has been very sensitive to our need for high quality, problem free product which has helped PTI sustain the highest level of client satisfaction in our industry. Over the past three years Britco has manufactured several three-story, hotel style dormitories for PTI.

Every project has been professionally managed and Britco consistently delivers a quality product in an extremely competitive industry; they are always prepared to go the extra mile to fulfill their commitments.

From the most senior levels down, we have always enjoyed an excellent working relationship with everyone at Britco and I would highly recommend Britco Structures for any modular construction project.

Sincerely,

Ron Green
President & CEO
